O R D E R:-

It was brought to the notice of the Government in 2002, that certain irregularities were committed, interalia, by Sri T.Prabhakar, Deputy Executive Engineer (Electrical), by allowing payment on bogus bills, without actually executing the electrical works in City Criminal Court, Hyderabad, causing loss of Rs. 2.00 lakhs to Government charges were issued, vide reference 2nd read above, against Sri T.Prabhakar, Deputy Executive Engineer (R&B), Electrical; he submitted his Written Statement Defense, denying the charges; since, Written Statement Defense was not convincing, an Inquiry was ordered; and, the Inquiry Authority submitted, vide reference 3rd read above, his Inquiry Report, holding the charges as proved.

2) Copy of Inquiry Report was communicated, vide reference 4th read above, interalia, to the Charged Officer, Sri T.Prabhakar, Deputy Executive Engineer (R&B), Electrical; the Charged Officer submitted his representation, stating that statements of non-technical persons occupying the building, cannot be considered, as alternative method to elicit information; that in the conduct of the inquiry and assessing evidence, there was bias and no fairness, and, requested to exonerate him from the charge; and, on this, Government, observe that his explanation is not convincing.

3) Government, after examination of the matter, decide and apportion Rs.1.00 lakh, out of Rs.2.00 lakhs loss caused to the Government, in case of Sri T.Prabhakar, the then Deputy Executive Engineer (R&B) Electrical, and hereby order that Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees One lakh only) shall be recovered from Sri T.
